

Media companies should be prohibited from using our airwaves to air political propaganda, unless they provide equal time to both parties.